

THE KODAK STORE

Eastman Kodaks are here. $6 to $60—all autographic. Also, there is a developing and printing plant second to none in the country. The work is artistically done, and economically. Send in your films by mail. In returning them we prepay Parcel Post.

WESTFALL DRUG CO.
OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA.
Retail Remedies
Crystal Ice Cream

ROBBERS KILL WHISKY HAULERS

Tulsa "High Jacks" Hold Up Two Cars and Shoot Driver of One.

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 1.—(Special)—"High Jacks" robbed an automobile of part of its load of election whisky on the way to Tulsa from Keystone Monday night, killed the driver, John Hearn, 24 years old, and made good their escape after guarding two other whisky haulers, who were in another automobile, until daylight. James Hearn, a brother of the man who was killed, and J. W. Wade were driving the second machine. At daylight, when they were released, they placed the body of the dead man in their car and brought it to Tulsa.

According to their story, they left Keystone some time about midnight. About six miles from Keystone the front machine, driven by John Hearn, was captured by three masked men and then the second machine and drivers were taken in charge. For a considerable time the three robbers stood guard over their prisoners while they shifted a part of the whisky from the front machine. Several times the liquor haulers were warned not to look around and finally John Hearn was caught looking, he was shot to death.

MOOSERS FACE LIVELY CONTEST

Louisiana Progressives to Discuss Ratification of Hughes.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 1.—A lively contest was predicted by party leaders in the progressive state convention which meets here late today between the element favoring ratification of the national committee's endorsement of Charles E. Hughes, republican nominee for president and the wing supporting the stand of John M. Parker, progressive vice presidential nominee, who has insisted the party should not endorse the candidate of any other party.

The convention was to select presidential electors and decide the party's future course in Louisiana. The state central committee meets prior to the convention.

Wakefield's Blackberry Balsam

Quickly cures Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera Infantum and all loose bowel troubles in adults and babies. No opium. No opiates. Harmless. Doctors recommend it. Seventy years without an equal. 35 cents everyplace.

With a large force of machinists and a complete equipment we can handle work promptly.

Prest Machine Works Co.
303-305 East Grand Ave.
Oklahoma City, Okla.

A DEEP CUT

on Lawn Mowers. We still have a few rare bargains in all priced Lawn Mowers.

The NATION HARDWARE
114 WEST GRAND

INJUNCTIONS TIE HANDS OF POLICE MAYOR DECLARES

Cleanup Orders Unenforced Because of Legal Restraint, Complaint.

"These suits against Chief of Police Nichols and officers of the police force are a pitifully weak attempt on the part of the lawless element of the city to intimidate officers in their discharge of 'cleanup orders,'" declared Mayor Overholser this morning.

"The bootlegging and gambling and immoral clinics are also taking refuge behind restraining orders and temporary injunctions to paralyze their lawless trades under pseudo protection."

Refers to Uplagraf.

Special reference, among others, was made by the mayor to the "Uplagraf place" at 912 West California avenue. It has been of unpleasant repute for a long time, officers claim.

A few days ago Chief of Police Nichols and Patrolman Osborne were arrested after the patrolman had attempted to protect a country girl by accompanying her with the alleged reputation of the place.

Another Suit Pending.

Another suit pending against city police officers was filed by James Beier, who claims to run the place at 1001 South Robinson avenue known as "Big Dave's place," an alleged bootlegging joint, which has regularly been raided for more than a year.

The mayor declared that the police departments' hands are tied by reason of temporary injunctions or restraining orders so that they now are powerless to raid the enjoyment places.

GAINING OF TIME ENTENTE'S PLAN

Haig Declares Allies Took Offensive Only After Big Preparations.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, Aug. 1.—At the close of two years of the war and at the first month of the British offensive, General Sir Douglas Haig, commander-in-chief of the group of British armies in France, in speaking of the situation, laid particular emphasis on the fact that the beginning of the third year of the war sees the initiative entirely with the entente allies on all fronts, while England, for the first time, is exerting something like a power worthy of her numerous resources on land.

Tide Declared Turned.

"The tide has turned," he said, "time has been with the allies from the first. It is only a question of more time until we win a decisive victory, which is the only sure way to bring peace in this as in other wars. Until this victory is won it all becomes a British soldier in France to think of peace."

Those who had the freedom of the battle lines the last four weeks had glimpses of the youthful and scholarly features of Sir Douglas in a passing automobile on dusty roads, tucked with moving troops and transports and again of his athletic figure, alighting from his car at the headquarters of one of the army commanders for a conference. But mostly his time is spent in a quiet room in a small chateau, which is his personal headquarters.

Problem of Campaign.

"The problem of the first summer's campaign and the section for the allies," he said, "was to hold the Germans from forcing a decision with their ready numbers of men, guns and shells. Whether it was the able generalship and heroism of the French on the Marne, the dogged retreat of the little British expeditionary from Mons, the stubborn resistance of the French and British to the German effort for the channel ports, the Russian retreat last summer, Belgium's or Serbia's sacrifice, Italy's stonewalling against Austria's offensive or France's immortal defense of Verdun, the purpose was always to gain time for preparations necessary to take the offensive away from the enemy."

"True friendship is scarce," said the man who frowns. "It only seems so," replied the man who smiles. "To those who do not know how to deserve it."—Washington Star.

Narrow View.

"Politeness pays."

"So they say. I think the profits run mostly to deferred dividends."

They Never Grow Up.

"Men are only boys grown tall."

"Yes, only this morning I heard a middle-aged woman taking her husband to task for not washing his ears properly."

Power acquired by guilt was never used for a good purpose.—Tacitus.

Chilean Heiress Seeking Divorce

Mrs. Blaquidia Errazuriz de Sautter, whose mother is reputed to be the wealthiest woman in Chile, has filed papers in New York for divorce against John Lenger de Sautter, noted Yale football star and formerly United States minister to Uruguay. In her complaint Mrs. de Sautter alleges that her husband has been guilty of indiscretions with several women, naming among them a star in a popular theatrical production now playing in New York.

HARD SURFACED ROAD SUGGESTED

Chamber of Commerce Secretary Would Construct Model to Waterworks.

Construction of a hard-surfaced road connecting Oklahoma City with the new waterworks reservoir west of the city will be suggested Thursday to the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce by Secretary Elmer E. Brown.

Mr. Brown believes a portion of the $115,000 the federal government will spend for good roads in Oklahoma this year can be secured for use on this proposed stretch of model highway. The remainder of the cost of construction, according to his plan, would be borne by the county and city.

Where It Would Run.

The hard-surfaced road would be approximately five and one-half miles in length. It would run from the end of the Linwood boulevard pavement to the eastern approach to the waterworks reservoir. Mr. Brown suggests that the city should continue the road across the dam.

Traffic between Oklahoma City and the big waterworks plant will be exceedingly heavy, and real need for such a road as is suggested was pointed out by Mr. Brown. He declared the dirt roads, while very good, will never be able to hold under the strain of such traffic.

Cost of $50,000.

The road, Secretary Brown estimates, can be built for about $50,000. He pointed out that the cost would be decreased because of the interurban facilities for hauling materials.

BERLIN FORBIDS FOOD TO POLAND

Inform United States Conditions Made by England Are Impracticable.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Germany has informed the United States that "on account of the impracticable conditions imposed by Great Britain on the shipments of foodstuffs from America into Poland," further negotiations for co-operation in Polish relief work are devoid of purpose.

Owing to favorable harvest prospects, however, the imperial government says, relief apparently will be unnecessary after October 1, next.

HOLY ROLLER CHURCH DUEL FATAL FOR TWO

WYTHEVILLE, Va., Aug. 1.—Joseph Peoples, 40 years old, is dead and Leck Fisher, 24 years old, is dying as the result of a fight with pistols at the Holy Roller church at Lick Mountain according to reports received here today. Fred and Gordon Fisher, brothers, and William Spencer Jr., are in the Wytheville jail under charges in connection with the affair. The shooting, it was said, grew out of trouble some time ago between Peoples and the three Fishers.

Mary Pickford's Column

At the Chicago Convention—II.

I am just 4:15 p. m. Friday, and here we are rolling along through the wonderful country en route to Chicago. Such an exciting day as it has been ever since I arrived this morning when I was awakened by my maid telling me that in order to make the 2:45 train I had better jump right up and start on a hurriedly unexpected preparations which always arise at the last moment.

I am very, very sleepy. I begged her to wait and I snuggled into the pillow again. But Louise shook me vigorously and told me that she knew of at least twelve things I had forgotten to pack the day before which must be attended to. And she was right for the time we reached the train I decided that properly to have done all we had wanted to really the alarm clock should have gone off at 4 instead of 7.

One would have thought we were leaving for South Africa, for when we reached the station there was a group of friends ready to bid us goodbye, much to the amusement of the onlookers, who soon discovered by our conversation that we were to return Monday morning.

Edith Storey of the Vitagraph company, with her mother and Antonio Moreno, left on the same train with us, although the Vitagraph day at the convention was not to take place until Sunday, she day planned for our departure. But they had been wired that a grand ball and banquet were scheduled for Saturday night and so were eager to become a part of the fun.

Mr. William A. Brady, the famous theatrical producer, joined us on the train, telling us that his daughter, Alice, had been in Chicago for a couple of days, lecturing to the young girls who flocked to the Columbia to hear her telling them that work in the moving picture studios was not all play and that it took grit, courage, and talent to become a moving picture star.

Mr. Brady and I had an interesting discussion of pictures, for he has taken control of the World Film corporation, and believes that pictures are just in their infancy. He talked of his policy of clean, wholesome photographs to educate the public, and I listened in full sympathy and appreciation, for that is what we are all consciously striving for—to give the best of ourselves that our pictures shall live not only because they teach a clean, moral lesson, but because they are educational.

Tomorrow Mr. Brady is going to make a speech to this effect before the exhibitors and I shall not miss being there to hear him, because there is no more eloquent speaker than he, especially when he has such a big, serious problem as the moving pictures of today.

Edith Storey just passed by in a very pretty traveling suit, and I want all of her admirers to know that she is just as charming off the screen as she is on. Like all happily successful girls, she is with her mother. At this very minute, while I am sitting in the drawing room writing up the diary of my day, her little mother and my dear little mother are gossiping about their children.

There are several boys and girls in the party, and tonight we will probably sit out on the observation car and as is the wont of a theatrical party when many of them travel together we will sing many of the old-fashioned songs which have been sung for the last twenty-five years. Have you ever noticed how rare it is for an impromptu quartet to get together and sing

Order By Mail

Wednesday

Shipping Charges Prepaid

Silk Gloves at 95c

Quality Formerly $2 the Pair—16 Button Length—Very Choice

They are tucked and embroidered—the Queen Elizabeth style, an acknowledged vogue in Glove-dom. They are black and white, and some are with contrasting stitches—gloves which, at 95c the pair, are extraordinary values.

Tidy Underwear

—Special Offerings

Women's pink lisle envelope chemise, shell finish around bottom, narrow shoulder strap around neck. Regular sizes, 50c; outsizes, 75c.

Women's silk lisle vest, narrow shoulders, V-shaped necks, full length, pink and white, 50c.

Towels and Bed Linens at Attractive Prices

Extra large bleached and hemmed Turkish bath towels, 12½c, 15c, 17½c and 25c.

81x90 bleached sheets, seamless, 75c; Hotel huck towels, 18x36, 7½c; 13-4 summer bed spreads, regular $3.50, to close, $2.

Two Sharp Specials

56-inch Palm Beach cloths—light shades, fancy weaves—usual $1.50 values. 69c

36-inch wide welt corduroy—velvet finish, light tan, gray, blue, green and amber. 69c

New Novelty Hat Band Ribbons, 15c to 50c Yard

50c Brooches and Lavalieres 19c

New Fall Gingham

200 pieces new dress gingham, 19c; 100 pieces new cheviot gingham, 10c; 32-inch Renfrew madras gingham, 15c; 30-inch linen finish empire chambrays, 15c; 32-inch kindergarten cloths, 19c; 200 pieces new percales, best grade, 14c.

KERR DRY GOODS COMPANY, OKLAHOMA CITY

ing there to hear him, because there is no more eloquent speaker than he, especially when he has such a big, serious problem as the moving pictures of today.

Edith Storey just passed by in a very pretty traveling suit, and I want all of her admirers to know that she is just as charming off the screen as she is on. Like all happily successful girls, she is with her mother. At this very minute, while I am sitting in the drawing room writing up the diary of my day, her little mother and my dear little mother are gossiping about their children.

There are several boys and girls in the party, and tonight we will probably sit out on the observation car and as is the wont of a theatrical party when many of them travel together we will sing many of the old-fashioned songs which have been sung for the last twenty-five years. Have you ever noticed how rare it is for an impromptu quartet to get together and sing anything but "Old Kentucky Home," "Old Oaken Bucket," "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean" and "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," the latter song rather appropriate these days when there are legends to be mothers, sisters, or wives with no above boys are even now waiting for the war cry to send them over the border.

Sometimes I think that theatrical troupes are so happy because they are like a flock of little chickens peeping under the protecting wing of the theater and feeling we are all one great, happy family.

We arrive tomorrow morning at 9:45, and, when I think of it, my heart beats very fast, for I am almost as excited as the little girl who tumbles into the dining-room on Christmas morning!

Answers to Correspondents.

Olive L. L.—Thank you for your gracious little letter. I can only play a few pieces on the piano, but would like to have studied.

M. R. B.—The little dogs in "The Foundling" grew up to be very obstreperous cut pups that have become studio pets.

M. R. B.—That was a false report about my adopting the little Japanese baby in "Madam Butterfly." He has a very happy father and mother who would never give him up.

L. S.—I have never lived away from my mother. At present Lottie and Jack are living with us, Jack having just arrived from California.

Mary Pickford.

FATIMA

A Sensible Cigarette

Here's cigarette-comfort

FATIMA may never become the only cigarette smoked by keen, substantial men of this type. But Fatima has already become more popular with such men than almost any other cigarette.

This is because men who smoke wisely want a SENSIBLE cigarette—a cigarette that is comfortable to the tongue and throat and that leaves a man feeling "fit" and clear-headed even after smoking more often than usual. You should try Fatimas.

Lippell & Myers, Inc., Chicago

20 for 15¢

